Part 1

No. 1 Should more be done to warn children about the dangers of smoking?

I think so. Many people start smoking when they are young because their friends keep encouraging them to try it. But it's important to tell them that smoking can cause cancer.

No. 2 Do you think that the crime rate in Japan will increase in the future?

No. People are well aware of the dangers of crime, and they are involved in efforts such as volunteer patrols to prevent it. These measures should help keep the crime rate down.

No. 3 Do you think that public opinion can influence decisions made by the government?

Yes. The government needs the support of the public to get re-elected, so if enough people protest against something, the government has no choice but to listen.

Part 2

A New Service for Parents

It can be troublesome for parents with young children to go shopping in crowded places. For this reason, more shopping centers have started offering their customers childcare services. Some customers with children choose shopping centers that provide these services. In this way, they do their shopping more easily. Such services are becoming available even in places such as theaters and hospitals.

Your story should begin with this sentence: One day, the Sasaki family went to an art museum that offered childcare services.

No. 4 Please read the passage aloud.

No. 5 According to the passage, how do some customers with children do their shopping more easily?

By choosing shopping centers that provide childcare services.

No. 6 Now, please look at the picture and describe the situation. You have 20 seconds to prepare. Your story should begin with the sentence on the card.

One day, the Sasaki family went to an art museum that offered childcare services. Mr. Sasaki said to his wife, "They'll take care of our baby while we look around." Ten minutes later, Mr. Sasaki was putting his bag into a locker. Mrs. Sasaki was looking forward to seeing the paintings with her husband. Two hours later at the gift shop, Mr. Sasaki was choosing a toy for their baby. Mrs. Sasaki was worried that their baby might be crying.
