4	I agree that there should be more seats for elderly people to sit on in trains and buses. To begin with, it is often said that many people today do not give up their seats to older people. Train and bus companies need to add more seats for the elderly to deal with this situation. In addition, it can be dangerous for the elderly to stand on trains and buses. Trains and buses sometimes stop suddenly, and this can cause elderly people to fall and hurt themselves. Therefore, I agree that there should be more seats for elderly people.
