4	I think that more places will offer student discounts for young people. I have two reasons for this opinion. Firstly, facilities can attract a lot of young customers by offering student discounts. They can make more profit by doing so. Secondly, student discounts will encourage young people to experience a lot of things easily. Offering student discounts will help young people visit various places cheaply and allow them to try many new things. For these reasons, I think the number of places that offer student discounts will increase in the future.
