4	I agree that it is important for Japanese athletes to be able to speak English. First, English is an important tool for communicating with foreign people. Today, there are international sports events in many places, and being able to speak English will help Japanese athletes build good relationships with foreign athletes. Second, speaking English will help Japanese athletes to improve their performances in sports. They will have more chances to get useful advice from foreign experts and coaches directly. These are the reasons why it is good for Japanese athletes to be able to speak English.
