4	I think that the number of pet hotels will increase in the future. First, many areas still do not have enough hotels that accept travelers with pets. Pet owners do not want to leave their pets alone at home, especially when they are away for several days. Second, pet hotels offer various services for pets. For example, some have doctors to make sure that the pets are healthy during their stay. For these reasons, I think there will be more pet hotels in the future.
