4	Recently, online games have been very popular. They are fun because you can play with many people from all over the world. However, playing them for too long may affect people's physical and mental health.
5	I think living near a station is better. First, people can save time getting on trains by living close to a station. They do not need to walk far to the station, and this is especially convenient in bad weather. Second, people can easily shop near their homes. Many stores are usually located around stations.
