4	Many countries have various historic buildings. They are valuable because they develop the local economy. However, it may become difficult to adapt to the demands of modern life and technology, such as installing barrier-free facilities.
5	Yes, I think so. First, with their parents' support, children can develop good study habits. Doing homework together at home makes children less likely to forget their assignments and helps them become more organized. Second, parents can spend meaningful time with their children. Helping with homework allows parents to better understand their children's thoughts and feelings.
