4	Part-time jobs for students are very common today. They are helpful because students can gain experience and learn about society. However, they lead to a reduction in students' study time if they work too much.
5	Yes, I do. First, parents can enjoy their meals while their children are playing in the space. Children usually cannot wait quietly for other people to finish eating. Second, the restaurants with special space for kids can attract more customers with children. Many guests have children and want to eat without worrying about their kids being noisy or disturbing others.
