5	I think a rule to prevent children from using smartphones in bed is necessary. Looking at light from screens before bed can make it difficult to sleep well. I have two questions. Are you comfortable sleeping in your bed? What size is the bed?
6	Yes, I think it is a good idea. First, attending games in stadiums helps fans feel connected. This is because many fans come together, cheer loudly, and share joyful moments. Second, watching games in a stadium allows people to understand the match better. For example, they can see everything, even parts that are not shown on TV.
