4	Fireworks festivals are popular summer events in many places across Japan. These events help people create special summer memories. However, they may feel a lot of stress because public transport is often very crowded.
5	Yes, I think they should stay open 24 hours a day. First, being open all day and all night can attract more customers. This allows stores to increase their sales by serving people at various times. Second, stores can support people in emergencies anytime. For example, someone who needs medicine at night can quickly get it and feel relieved.
