4	Mobile payment is a popular way to buy things. It is useful because it is fast and easy. However, people might spend more because they cannot easily see how much money they have left.
5	Yes, I think it is a good idea for children to have birthday parties with their friends. First, having birthday parties helps create good memories. Celebrating with friends makes the day special and memorable for a long time. Second, children can understand each other well. They have to think about what their friends' favorite things are when choosing birthday gifts.
