| 4 | Having pets in classrooms is a popular idea in many schools. Students can learn to care for animals. However, some students are sometimes not careful and give the pets food that they should not eat. |
| 5 | Yes, I think it is a good idea for schools to have stores for students to buy food. First, such stores make school life convenient for students. They can buy food quickly during their breaks. Second, by having such stores, schools can help improve students' health. Schools can offer many kinds of foods that are suitable for growing children. |
