4	Whether school uniforms are necessary has been widely debated recently. They can make students feel equal because everyone wears the same clothes. However, they may affect students' privacy, as others can easily identify their school.
5	Yes, I do. First, TV news programs have people who give reports and explanations of the events. This makes it easy for children to understand important news and problems happening around them. Second, by watching news programs on TV, parents and children can have a chance to discuss the news together. It is a good way to improve family communication.
