4	Group projects are a common activity in many schools. They are beneficial because students can develop teamwork and cooperation skills. However, if some members do not complete their share, others feel that it is unfair.
5	Yes, I do. First, people living near famous sightseeing spots can easily visit such places. They can enjoy going to museums and parks near their homes without taking a long trip. Second, people living near such spots can meet tourists from other countries. It will give those people the chance to talk with foreigners and learn about different cultures.
