4	Commuting by car has become common for many workers. It can help people relax more than when they use public transportation. However, it can make them late for work because of heavy traffic.
5	Yes, I think so. First, students will be interested in different school events. Some students enjoy sports events, while others prefer cultural events. Second, students will be more motivated to participate in school events because they have chosen to take part. For example, in a sports festival, they will practice harder to win.
